COMMUNITY: The Marshes at Daniel Island

The Fairbank plan offers a thoughtfully designed layout with a first-floor primary suite, providing a peaceful retreat at the heart of the home. The expansive family room seamlessly connects to a screened porch, perfect for indoor-outdoor living. The kitchen flows into a spacious dining room, ideal for gatherings. Upstairs, you'll find additional bedrooms and a versatile recreation room, providing plenty of space for relaxation and entertainment. Double covered porches enhance the home's charm, offering extra outdoor living spaces for enjoying the surrounding views.
